Prayer Day 9

“As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men...”

Galatians 6:10

Let's Pray:

Father God, thank you for making it possible for the believers in Jesus Christ to come before your throne on behalf of others. Thank you for being our El Roi—the God who sees. At this time I turn to you with a heavy heart on behalf of the Haitian people. Their country has been struck and devastated by massive earthquakes. The lives of thousands have been lost. Children have become orphans, many at a very tender age. Have mercy, O Father; comfort each and every one of them in these tragic times. I pray for those who are working diligently to help the country of Haiti, especially the doctors and military staff who are on the ground; may they be your hands and feet. Grant them the courage, wisdom, and all that is necessary to assist the hurting of this poor country. You are Jehovah Jireh (the Lord will provide). Yes, God, you satisfy the thirsty and fill the hungry with good things. You are the Lord who heals—Jehovah Rapha. You bring light where darkness is. In faith I believe you bend down to hear as your people present their petitions, interceding for those in need. Thank you for the many who have come forward with kindness to the rescue. As the news subsides and the headlines fade away, may we not forget to keep the Haitian people in our prayers as they work to reconstruct their lives. May we extend the consolation with which we've been comforted in you. I lift a voice of thanks, for your mercy is new every morning and it renews our hope every day. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen
